SPAM EMAILS

Please beware of spam emails!

The Archdiocese has been made aware of spam emails coming from fraudulent impersonated Gmail accounts pretending to be from parish priests.

These emails often include 'parishpastor' and the name of parish priests but they are not being sent from priests' email accounts.

Proactive action has been taken by the Diocesan IT team to block such emails but they can still be generated elsewhere and infiltrate email accounts.

Diocesan clergy and staff should now be using email accounts that end in @rcaob.org.uk

Please be vigilant. If you are in any doubt about an email please contact your parish priest / parish office and check.

Communion Reflection

The Lord's words remain with us just as he said they would.

"What good will it do you to gain the whole world if you lose your soul?

Love your enemies; pray for those who persecute you.

The greatest among you is the one who serves.

There is joy in heaven when a sinner repents.

Woman, has no one condemned you? Then neither will I condemn you.

Seek first the kingdom of God, and all these other things that you fret about will be given to you."

Lord, your words challenge and inspire, they guide and comfort us. They turn our values upside down.

Once heard, we cannot forget them. We anchor our lives to them. For though heaven and earth should pass away, your words will never pass away.
