Reflection

A soldier, recuperating from a war injury, looks out the hospital window.

It was springtime and the trees and shrubs were filling up with leaves and blossoms. He reflected on their simple beauty.

As he looked at them he noticed how birds of every description moved freely in and out among them- Robins, and sparrows, and wrens, blackbirds, and thrushes, and wagtails.

Here they held their various branch meetings. They shared the shelter and fruit, and they still managed to live at peace with one another. From here their music went forth to fill the world with its joyous sound.

If they can do this, why can't we?

Suddenly the words of Christ came alive for him: "The kingdom of heaven is like a tree in whose branches all the birds of the sky can find a home."

And a deep longing filled his soul. He longed to belong to such a kingdom, to open his arms and embrace all his brothers and sisters. And the bitterness caused by his injury suddenly flowed away from him, and he was healed and at peace with himself and the world.
