Father Hudson's Care – new CEO

As we say goodbye to CEO Andy Quinn and wish him all the best in his retirement, we welcome new CEO Joanne Watters who will start her new role on 1st June 2024. Joanne has been working for Father Hudson's Care for the last 9 years as Head of Community Projects, working with partners to develop new and existing projects including Tabor Living, which accommodates individuals experiencing homelessness, Brushstrokes Community Project supporting refugees, asylum seekers and migrants, and others, including Young at Heart in north Staffordshire, Sophia House, Fatima House, and the refugee community sponsorship initiative.

Joanne has a passion for supporting individuals and families who are marginalised and in need; in 2023 she led, together with Fr Michael White, the successful capital fundraising appeal which enabled the charity to double its homelessness provision working, based at St. Catherine of Siena Church in Birmingham.

Joanne commented 'I am proud as a Catholic to be the first female CEO for such an important and longstanding charity. I am committed to continuing the mission of our founder Fr George Vincent Hudson, working in partnership with the archdiocese, parishes, schools, and supporters.'

We are pleased to have a new CEO with a background in frontline and management roles in both local and national charities.
