FATHER STEVEN- THANK YOU

Father Steven has worked tirelessly over the past months in supporting Father Christopher and the parish and schools of St Anne's and St Anthony's. We are truly thankful for all his hard work, friendship and the wonderful services that he has given us.

This Saturday and Sunday will be Father's final weekend with us before he ventures off to summer camp at Alton Castle next weekend, and afterwards returns to his own parish of Our Lady of the Wayside.

For anybody who hasn't had chance to contribute to the collection for Father and would like to, there will be a final opportunity after this weekend's Masses (in the porch as you leave church).

Many thanks for all contributions and we wish Father Stephen good health, happiness and God's blessing as he continues the wonderful vocation, work and mission that God has planned for him.
